

12/8/15

Present: Jack, Vassie, Cheryl and Gina

No Sexton's Report

All seems to be running smoothly.

Snow Shoveling

Gina spoke with Jerry from JSM Summer and Winter Maintenance Inc., regarding the additional responsibility of shoveling around the garden shed where our trash and recycling are kept. This was in addition to speaking with Bruce Schultz who does the plowing. Gina wanted to Bruce to understand that the snow could not be piled up in a way that would obstruct the shed.

Letter from the Insurance Company

The Town is asking for the amount of coverage that we have on NUCS and the Parsonage. Even though we are not taxed, the Town would like to better understand the value of the Church and Parsonage. Jack has supplied them with the letter.

Signs

As ad hoc committee consisting of Polly Forcier, Pru Schuller and Barbara Bartlett were tasked with some new signage for the Church to make new folks feel more comfortable. Pru and Polly met with Gina to discuss possible new signs. Buildings and Grounds discussed what might be needed that would be more colorful and friendly. Buildings and Grounds has taken on this project.

The same committee has given NUCS a new bulletin board in the Social Hall. The bulletin board will allow all committees to disseminate information. Each notice will be typed to keep it neat and tidy.

Porch Floor in front of the Office

The first board on the porch needs to be replaced. Gina will ask Radek if he has the time to replace the board.

Possible October Wedding

Geraldine was contacted for an October 2016 wedding. B&G is negotiating our rental agreement based on our normal fee of $1150.00.

Furnace Room

Ann found a dead mouse. Gina has not seen any evidence of mice but will ask Agata if she has seen any evidence. Cheryl suggested asking Agata to speak with JP Pest to see if they have any thoughts on what we can do ourselves to insure that we keep the mice outside for the winter.

New Member

Thank you, Don Ransom, and a hearty welcome to you !

Decorating Sanctuary

Anne Dean donated the tree, and with the help of George Wohlgemuth, will be coming on Saturday morning to bring in the tree and put it up. B&G will be here Saturday morning at 9 AM with Donna D. to decorate.

Next Meeting will be on January 5, 2016 at 6:30 in the Social Hall.

Happy Holidays !

Cheryl
