

August Communications committee report 8/5/2014

We met with Worship due to low attendance. Topics related to communications were the possibility of gathering comments about a service on our Facebook page, and compatibility issue on phones. In Touch looks different on a phone. There will be follow up in later meetings.