Directory

Name tags

Write notes to visitors and to new members.

Three new members lunches and recognition Sunday

Three Circle dinners

Review the directory to contact those who have been absent for awhile.

Coordinate with W and E committee

Those who sign the membership book with new members should advise them of the three T's for which they are responsible: Time, Talent and Treasure. To them or anyone inquiring about becoming a member, the pamphlet about that should be given. A candle should be lit for new members the following Sunday.

(Sherry will ask Barbara if W+E is interested in the following:) Then tell someone from the Welcoming and Engagement committee so that one of them would interview the new person: Do they have any questions? What are their hopes for spirituality? Is there group or activity that they would like to see added, e.g. book club? Game night? The above are just suggestions.

Moira is now interviewing new members for bios in the Quest monthly.

On the third Sunday of each month in the parlors, stories from religions around the world will be shown in the parlors. As of today, we now have the equipment to show dvds.

Respectfully submitted,

Sherry
